DPS Chas-Where Excellence is Infinite

Happy New Year 2022 - Positive Commitments

Celebrating occasions with value-driven activities

Greetings to all avid readers!

Christmas & New Year remind us of the spirit of giving and forgiving, marking a fresh beginning, allowing new infinite possibilities. Both the occasions, invite a lot of festivities and merrymaking, promoting the feeling of togetherness.

DPS Chas, Bokaro celebrated both the occasions gleefully and organised various creative, fun-filled and value-driven activities for children to usher the joy of Christmas and New Year.

The joy bestowed upon by these two overwhelming days transmits the message that every end is a new beginning. A line never has an end, it can always be extended in the manner we want. Life being mortal can be led as immortal by the quality of deeds we perform. Every minute crafts our life, so our thoughts must be pure, our words must be consoling and our actions must impart a positive influence. Our resolution should be influenced on this basis.

December is chilly but has such warmth of emotion and the New Year elevates our lives to new endeavours. So, possess solid thoughts that will increase your potential and motivate you to keep the spark ignited so that you walk the way to glory. Work meticulously each day.

My best wishes are with everyone.

MESSAGE

The tiny tots of Pre-Nursery enjoyed making Santa caps. Little munchkins of Nursery made eye-catching Christmas wreaths with items available at their disposal. Creative children of class Prep made colourful Christmas bells. Students of class I made lovely rocking Santa infusing life into the assorted materials while the senior students actively participated in the assembly activities sharing thoughts, psalms from the Bible and new year resolutions.

Cute Santa made a grand entry in all the classes and surprised the children, blessing the children with the wish that they have a very healthy, wealthy and prosperous new year.

The profound joy that settled on every face made the hearts fill with content. There was love, joy and goodwill all around.

We at DPS Chas are striving hard to impart the value of culture, tradition and the most important human virtue of 'Sharing is Caring'. The smile, the joy, the love, the goodness that one has if shared, do miracle in the lives of others. Children are involved in several activities of their interest which make them engaged learners. Here they are developed as concerned, conscious citizens embracing the diversity that the world bestows on us. The goodwill that one creates helps one to live a life of peacefulness and contentment.

May the approaching time bring such glory and prosperity in the lives of everyone and may the hearts be filled with true gratitude towards the God gracious.

Ms. Deepali Bhuskute
Officiating Principal

Singing of the Christmas songs, the imagination of Santa showering gifts fill our hearts with joy. It rejuvenates all and makes a cherishable family and friendly affair.

The world as Rendezvous where the Son of the Lord – Jesus Christ holds the hands under his mighty care endowing power to wade through the ocean of obstacles that life throws in front of us. The blessing of the Lord calms us as we walk under his shade demanding 'Let there be Peace on Earth'.

Activities

Learning is best when it is Experiential.

To let students attain a high level of confidence and to build in them the required experience, DPS Chas leaves no moment unturned to impart a better hands-on experience. The students involve themselves enthusiastically in activities and projects that boost their creativity and foster an innovative mindset.

There is goodness all around you. All you need is to have a humble soul to recognize it.

DEEPAWALI - Festival of Light & Joy

DPS Chas in order to mark the celebration of the Diwali festival conducted many activities where children showed their enthusiastic participation.

EMBRACE MOTHER NATURE

Nature is full of joy,

Please don't think it is a toy,

Don't play with it,

Please, please save it.

They give us food,

They give us shade,

So, give them a little space.

If we will give them

Importance and care.

Our lives will be full of joy

And happiness will be everywhere.

- Mohit Raj, Class IX

THE UNTRAMMELLED NATURE

O dear nature! so dense and green,
more ethereal and exquisite than anyone has ever seen.

So calming and heavenly;

So tender and alluring,

makes one forget all the agony.

The ocean, the thunder, the mountains and the sea-

the ants, squirrel and the bumble bee,

Nature is everything we see.

- Akanksha, Class IX

Does this ever come to your mind "Who you really are?" If you ponder on this small question, you may not find any definite answer. I know many of you may believe and would say that you know yourself well and you don't need any additional knowledge about yourself. But I suggest that it is very little we know about thyself. There is a larger portion of ourselves that is so disguised, veiled and not realized. And today I will try to expose you to that knowledge. The creativity, the talent which has yet not found an outlet.

WHO ARE YOU?

- Hemant Kumar,
Class XI (Head Boy)

Every one of you might know how to ride a bicycle. Many of you think that it has been taught to you by your father. But I will tell you that it had been never taught to you. Your father had just exposed you to it. His mentoring made you realize that you had it in you.

Everything is inside us at times we just need someone to acquaint us with it. Now the question arises "How do we do it?" Well, the answer is clear we just need to trust everything and everyone around us and let go of those unessential things that may hurdle our thought and positivity. Often we undergo trust issues because of our past and we don't want to trust anyone. But trust is a gateway to the desired. Trust is one of the most important factors which help people to gain something in their life. Many times, it happens that our trust shudders but you need to hold yourselves stiff. Look only towards the optimism.

Life is a very typical game, which is a combination of both sadness and happiness. In this game, there always comes a level in everyone's life when they fall. When you fall there would be no one to help you but there might be few loving people who might try to help you. The guidance will nudge the right thing in you. Small things inside you have the capability to lift you and that is hope. So, trust helps you to be aware of that disguised self that had been long hidden from you and once known you become a powerful being with skills and capabilities that is to be rejoiced.

In conclusion, no matter how darker the days are or how cold are the nights, and even if there is no one, remember our hopes belong to us. So never let them down, never let yourself down, belong to yourself and keep the trust high. It will help you know yourself better.

DECISION MAKING

*Our life is ushered with the experiences of many,
It is not just the palm lines that carve our destiny.*

*Every experience paves the final way,
Every decision taken is an apt mind's say.*

Eventually, we reach where we want to be.

If incompetent things we just do not see.

Never get weary of the wrong decisions.

They should be monitored with precision.

Never cow down your potential.

Frown not on depressing situations.

They have a pattern in disguise,

Which if you fathom you will truly realize.

The art of "Decision Making"
